

Clarksburg Set To Host Its Yearly Field Day

Annual Clarksburg Field Day, sponsored by the Methodist church, will be held in Hurst's grove at the edge of town Thursday. For more than 35 years, this event has been held annually and attracts large crowds from more than 30 miles.

Interesting attractions have been planned for the afternoon and evening. Features include Roy Battles, WLW farm program director, who will speak at 2:30 p. m. and the Swanee River Boys of WLW in the evening. Adelphi Band will play both in the afternoon and evening. Ahead of the Swanee River Boys program, there will be a 45-minute magic performance by Raymond Stevens of Washington C. H.

Trapshooting will begin at 11 a. m. and there will be athletic events and other entertaining features during the day.

Lunch will be served at the refreshment stand and a fish and chicken dinner will be served in the evening.

Show article text (OCR) ▼