

Area News Briefs

the prie murder Felker.

Yearbooks Ready

Bloom-Carroll 1987 yearbooks may be picked up during school hours 7:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. at the school.

Suspect Arson

A Fairfield County Sheriff's deputy's report states a fire was deliberately set at a vacant house sometime Monday.

Smoke was spotted by Diamond Power security officers and the deputy sent to the scene, 2620 E. Main St., could see a mattress on fire. Berne Township fire department put out the fire.

The house is owned by Helen Awalt, of 117 N. Ewing St. The deputy's report states the house had been vandalized several times before.

2,000 At Ox Roast

The approximately 2,000 people attending Saturday's Bloom-Carroll Music Boosters Ox Roast consumed 600 pounds of beef, according to Don

McDaniel, president of the Music Boosters. "We sold 1,250 sandwiches and 320 complete sit-down meals in the cafeteria," said McDaniel. "We don't have final figures yet on how much money we made for the Bloom-Carroll music program."

Five bands participated in the band festival at 9 a.m., and those attending the Ox Roast heard the Olivedale and Adelphi bands, visited the flea market and participated in other Ox Roast activities. In the volleyball game between the B-C Music and Athletic Boosters, the Music Boosters won the trophy.

George Hallam, vice president of the sponsoring group, served as Ox Roast chairman.

Board Meets

Amanda-Clearcreek Board of Education, meeting this week, passed a motion authorizing creation of an additional elementary learning disabilities class to alleviate current overcrowded conditions, according to Superintendent Stephen Gahn.

Henry Lecrone was employed as first-semester driver's education instructor, and the resignations of David Roderick, assistant class play adviser, and Sharma Hunter and Catherine Trivette as teacher's aides were accepted.

A bid to sell buses No. 4 and 8 to the Edwin Davis Company for $1,200 was accepted.

A special meeting to adopt a new appropriations and spending plan and for the purposes of the 1,100-foot line affects about 15 property owners.

Council also heard a financial report about the village swimming pool. Receipts totaled $44,000 and expenditures were $38,000 for the three month operation.

Trick-O-Treat night was set for Oct. 29 from 5:30-7 p.m.

Sandy McCabe was named chairman for the St. Judes Bike-A-Thon Sept. 26 from 9-11 a.m. at Johnson Park. The event goes to children's medical care.

Meeting Set

The Salvation Army Advisory Board will meet Thursday at 7:30 p.m. The meeting will be held in the conference room at the Salvation Army. For more information, call the Salvation Army.

Paper Drive

Baltimore Boy Scout Troop 187 will be having a paper drive Saturday, Sept. 19, from 8 a.m. to noon at the Christ United Methodist Church in Baltimore. For more information contact Keith Bowers.

Lancaster Eagle-Gazette
(USPS 303-980)
If It's For Fairfield County, We're For It

A consolidation of the Lancaster Eagle, established in 1907, and the Lancaster Gazette, established in 1826. Entered as Second Class Matter March 11, 1936, at Lancaster, O., Post Office under the Act of March 8, 1879. Second class postage paid at Lancaster, O.

HEARING PROBLEMS

COMPLETE HEARING AID SERVICE

- Hearing Tested
- Hearing Aids Fitted
- Special Battery Prices

Clipped By:

mathew5554
Sat, Mar 23, 2019