

EDIT SHARE PRINT DOWNLOAD Save to Ancestry

the Circleville Herald

NEW HOLLAND'S FALL FESTIVAL DUE NEXT WEEK

Twenty-seventh annual three-day Fall Festival will be held at New Holland starting next Wednesday night.

The event will be launched at 7 p. m. with a parade which will include gaily decorated floats, costumed children, and a variety of animal pets. Cash prizes will be awarded for the best floats, the best costumes, and the best pets. The judges will be, Mrs. Jane May, C. W. Briggs and Galen Kirkpatrick.

The Greenfield Band will play Wednesday night. Music will be furnished Friday night by the Adelphi Band. The program includes a street dance. The midway will include four major rides and 15 concessions.

Show article text (OCR)