Laurelville Festival Scheduled Next Week

Laurelville's annual Fall Festival will be held all next week, September 24-29, it was announced today by Mayor Lew McClelland.

All proceeds of this year's festival will go to the children's playground at the village park, Mayor McClelland said.

Circleville Night will be held on Wednesday, it was announced, and the Circleville band will be featured. Laurelville and Adelphi bands are also scheduled to play during the festival.

The U. S. flag has 13 horizontal stripes—seven red and six white.
