Kingston Fall Fest features food

By JILL ZEGER
Gazette Staff Writer

A relaxed fall-festival homecoming may be enjoyed in Kingston Saturday with the Kingston Fall Fest.

Mike Search, president of Kingston National Bank, which sponsors the fest, says the event began six years ago "to sort of give back to the community." The fest will be at Kingston Village Park and admission is free.

"A lot of us just enjoy the eating part," Search says.

"We have 15 food booths."

Crafters will also be on hand, as well as a caricaturist and the Samson, Monster Truck. This truck is shown around the country and will be on display, he said. Further information may be obtained by calling the bank at 642-2191.
