

Parade Takes Form

7 Bands, 8 Historic Vehicles Secured For Sesqui Celebration

Twenty floats, seven bands, eight ancient historic carriages and scores of old and new automobiles from 1898 models on up to the present day have been lined up by a busy parade committee for the sesquicentennial celebration.

Moore floats and vehicles are being signed up each day by Meeker Metzger, chairman, and his committee, which expects to present an outstanding pageant on the evolution of transportation through Chillicothe's 150 years.

AUTO PLATES ON SALE

Sesquicentennial souvenir plates to be attached to automobile license plates are now available to motorists at local filling stations. Ordered by the sesquicentennial commission to help promote the celebration, the metal plates bear a four-color reproduction of Ohio's first capitol together with the dates of the celebration. They are being offered at 25 cents, a fraction over cost.

The parade is scheduled for 2 p. m. on Friday, Oct. 4.

Army Band Obtained

The bands now engaged include the Lockbourne Army band, provided through the cooperation of Col. B. O. Davis, post commander, and Lt. W. W. Savoy; a Salvation Army marching band from Portsmouth; the Hallsville-Adelphi band; Jackson high school band; Chillicothe high band and a local German band.

There will be a new Greyhound bus in the parade and floats of old and new B. & O. locomotives.

The Army will exhibit several vehicles and a number of commercial exhibits has been arranged.

Small airplanes will be in the procession as will the Tucson Red Men, fox and coon hunters and hunters with their rabbit dogs.

Prizes Offered

Prizes are offered for organization floats and the committee wants entries listed

(Please Turn to Page 2, Col. 4)

0 5287700
3 20111000

Clipped By:

mathew5554

Wed, Mar 20, 2019