

Apple Festival continues

JACKSON — Nat Stucky and Peggy Foreman from Nashville, Tenn., will be performing at the Jackson County Apple Festival tonight.

The country music show begins at 8 p.m. Also scheduled for the evening is the high school football game between Jackson and Greenfield, dubbed the "Apple Bowl."

In Thursday events at the festival, J.B. Goff's dog won best of show in the Ohio Foxhunter Annual Bench Show and the Jacksonettes, a little majorette group, won the award for the best booth display.

A large crowd turned out Thursday evening to hear Charlie Tango and his country rock sound.

Following is a schedule for the remainder of the festival:

Friday

Nat Stucky and Peggy Forman, music 8 p.m.
 Apple Bowl, Jackson versus Greenfield 8 p.m.

Flying Circus, Air Force Band 3:45 and 6 p.m.

Saturday

Big Wheel race 9 a.m.
 Annual water fight, area fire departments 11 a.m.
 Cheerleader competition 11 a.m.
 Comedy magic act, Marko and Tarbaby 1:30 p.m.
 The Flying Circus 2:30 p.m.
 Queens reception 4 p.m.
 Adelphi Community Band 4:30 p.m.
 Grand Parade 7:30 p.m.
 Parade competition 10 p.m.
 Wagon Wheeler Square Dance 8:30 p.m.

13 finalists vie for title

Thirteen finalists have been chosen to p.m., Wednesday ceremony at the school.
 The local Queen will then be eligible for

Nothing but trash

Clipped By:

mathew5554
Thu, Mar 21, 2019