GOOD WILL TRIPPERS HAVE GREAT AND SUCCESSFUL TOUR

The Good Willers made a wonderful trip, yesterday. Up to Bainbridge, over to Cynthiana and thence down to Sun Fish Valley of Pike county, through Sinking Springs to Piketon and ending at Waverly. The road was fine, except one small stretch of less than a mile, which was in the process of being resurfaced with local marl. In a week's time this should be finished and then there will be clear sailing for motorists in the most beautiful valley hereabouts and in two weeks' time the ride should give the motorist a riot of color from the wooded slopes of the hills on either side of the roadway.

At Bourneville, first stop, a concert was given. At Bainbridge, a wonderful reception was given the visitors. The Odd
