VIKINGS OPEN SEASON TODAY WITH JACKSON

C. H. S. Gridders Prepared For Hard Game With Long Weeks Of Stiff Practice; Weather Is Ideal And Fans Show Plenty Of Spirit; Band And Organized Cheering Mark Pre-Game Ceremonies.

Under ideal football weather, the sun shining down through the clear, cool atmosphere, more than a thousand followers of the C. H. S. grid team trooped to Meaco park this afternoon to witness the opening battle of the 1930 season against the Jackson eleven.

The teams were there, the fans were there and what is equally important, the spirit was there. Previous to the game Vernia's Vikings were exhibiting the results of three long weeks of intensive training with high spirits and well balanced confidence in their ability to win.

Cheers were abundant under the enthusiastic direction of the newly elected cheer leaders, John Hathaway, a senior, Mary Etta Myers, a freshman, and Verna Hoffman, a sophomore.

Before the game began the C. H. S. band came onto the field, 31 pieces in all, led by Don Wharton, drum major.

A number of selections including the high school song and were interspersed with the cheers.

Members of the band and the instruments they played are as follows:

Marjorie Huff, solo cornet; Robert Smith, solo cornet; Paul Dennewitz, solo cornet.

Roderich Baird, first cornet; Victor Hoffman, first cornet; Robert Purdue, first cornet; Hope Hoffman, second cornet; Donald Mathers,second cornet; Robert Johnson, third cornet.

George Dennewitz, solo and first clarinet; Jack West, solo and first clarinet; Frank Uhrig, solo and first clarinet; Robert Ward, solo and first
