On the March: Invercargill: 9 times

The band returned to Bremen after an absence of 6 years. Before it was pretty well organized. But this time we had 4 members looking for the wagon and the start - Gilbert Wamsley, Jeff Mathew, Richard Norton and Merrill Junk. To further show the uncertainty we played the march twice before reaching the start. Down the main street we played it 5 times, once going around the corner and once going back. 9 times total. The trombone section didn't show up and the baritone section was weak. Barely enough to get by. Herman Hinton played trombone.
