

ON; COPY, FIVE CENTS

TRINITY S. S. IS GROWING LIKE A BAY TREE

Eighth Annual Banquet Tendered By Supt. J. P. Phillips Brings New Inspiration

Harold Nixon Crowned

FOR PERFECT ATTENDANCE DURING PAST SEVEN YEARS REV. RIKER AND MR. PHILLIPS DWELL ON GREAT INSTITUTIONAL ADDITION TO THE SUNDAY SCHOOL ON LOT ALREADY OWNED AS A GOAL YET TO BE ACHIEVED —SCHOOL GROWS FROM 166 STUDENTS TO 1420 IN 23 YEARS.

A coronation, novel and interesting, took place last night in the auditorium of the Trinity M. E. church during the eighth banquet given by Superintendent John P. Phillips, of the Sunday School, in honor of those members who were present every Sunday during the past year.

Harold Nixon, 16-year-old boy, was formally crowned "king of the Sunday School," he having achieved the unique distinction of making this perfect attendance record for the past seven successive years. He was properly acclaimed "monarch of all he surveyed," as two fellow members placed the crown on his head and sat him at the head of the honor roll table.

"You're the hero of this situation, Harold," declared the pastor, Rev. A. B. Riker, called upon to pay a short tribute to the young monarch. "Everybody loves a winner. As they acclaim the first woman to swim the English Channel, and the Kansas City singer who won a place in the Metropolitan Opera Company at 17, and the man who wrested the poetic laurels from Dempsy, so we acclaim you, winner of a bigger

(Continued on Fifth Page)

Clipped By:

Bandman2020
Sat, Nov 21, 2020