

— Reviewing The Past —

20 Years Ago

Lord Home was named to fill the position of Britain's new prime minister—the man who was to try to carry the Conservative party to a victory within the following year.

Mrs. William Andrews and Mrs. Floyd Garner were program chairmen, presenting a cultural session when XI Alpha Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi Sorority, met at the home of Mrs. Charles Perrin, 457 Westview Dr., for their gathering. The two women spoke of the five senses. Mrs. Donald Strapp, president, conducted the business portion of the meeting.

Vern Frasure, assistant vice president of the Hocking Valley National bank, was the guest speaker when St. Mark Rosary Altar Society held its monthly meeting in the school cafeteria. Introduced by Rev. Leo Benedetti, pastor of the church, Mr. Frasure spoke on credit buying and interest rates. He also outlined a proportional budget for spending one's income. Hostesses for the session were Mrs. Alfred Gilmore, Mrs. Irene George, Mrs. Betty Gossell, Mrs. Helen Eaton, Miss Margaret Dodds, Mrs. George Hyme and Mrs. Raymond Hyme.

Lambda Zeta Chapter of the Beta Sigma Phi Sorority met at the home of Mrs. Donald Karcher, Garfield Avenue. Miss Betty Azbell was president of the group.

30 Years Ago

Friendship showed its worth when scores of helpful persons gathered at the home of Elmer Boyer, whose farm was located north of Carroll, to pick and sort 22 acres of corn and plant 30 acres of wheat. Mr. Boyer was a patient in Grant Hospital, recovering from injuries received while operating a corn picker. Women of the Fairview Church served dinner to the large company of workers.

When the Adelphi Band headed the livestock parade of the Fairfield County Fair, one of its members, Floyd E. Ruff, Rt. 1 Amanda, was marching as a bandsman for the 43rd consecutive year. He began his band career with the Citizens' Band of Lancaster when he was 17 and played with other bands throughout the county over the years.

Miss Sally DeRolph climaxed her season's work in the Pleasantville Pantherettes 4-H Clothing Club by winning all honors in the 4-H Dress Revue at the Fairfield County Fair. She received the special Eagle-Gazette banner and a $25 savings bond. Miss Beverly Thomas, Rt. 1 Baltimore, was winner of the 4-H Leadership Award.

Members of the Aremé Club elected Mrs. William Kelley as president for the following year. Mrs. Harry Winters, Mrs. Margaret Wacker and Mrs. Edmund Armstrong were also elected to offices.

Clipped By:

mathew5554

Sat, Mar 23, 2019