

EDIT

SHARE

PRINT

DOWNLOAD

Save to Ancestry

Laurelville's Fall Festival Opens Tonight

Laurelville's annual fall festival will be held tonight through Saturday under sponsorship of the Laurelville volunteer fire department.

Net proceeds, as in the past, will go toward purchase of needed fire fighting equipment.

The festival gets under way at 6:30 p.m. today. Rides have been set up in Laurelville's public square and several side streets by the Fred Nolan Amusement Co. of Zanesville.

Wednesday night's festivities include crowning of a Firemen's Queen at 9 o'clock and a concert by the Laurelville High School band at 8 o'clock. Two queen candidates from each Laurelville High School class have been nominated.

The queen candidates are Carol Hartley and Connie DeLong, Laurelville High School freshmen; Janet Reid and Ada Harmon, sophomores; Betty McCain and Garnetha Meenach, juniors; Sharon Allen and Betty Hunt, seniors.

Thursday night, hula hoop contests will be held for youngsters aged 6 through 8 and for those persons aged 9 and older. The Adelphi community band will present a concert that night at 8 o'clock.

Friday night's program will feature a concert by the Laurelville High School band and climax of the festival will be a parade starting at 5 p.m. Saturday.

The Centralia and Laurelville school bands will take part in the parade which will include the Firemen's Queen and her court, old autos, horse-drawn vehicles and horses and their riders.

Prizes will be given for the best saddle and parade horse. The Centralia High School band will also present a concert closing night.

U.S. Employment

Show article text (OCR)