BIRTHDAY PARTY
 Mrs. Charles Hann of East Main street entertained with a birthday party Thursday afternoon for her son, Walter Lee. The afternoon was spent in games for the children. After an afternoon of play the little boys were called to the dining room where they dined with delight upon a most attractive table, appointed to fascinate them. Yellow and white ribbons of crepe paper streamed from the ceiling, flowers on the table were tiny yellow baskets and caps. In the center of the table was placed a huge birthday cake with three purple candles burning upon it. Retractions of ice cream and cake were served. Master Walter Lee received many lovely presents. Those present were Mary Frances Egan, Mary Barker Allen, Lillian Rank, Mary Ruth Barnhart, Wilfred Shadlen, Mary Frances Kibel, Catherine Highland, Marjory England, Robert Kaskie, Robert Connolly, Billy Wood, Charles Rank, John Niles, Richard Kern, and Carl Everett Neas.
