

past
C. A.
Grad-
mn.
place
work
and
the
Bain-
pects
n as

Chillicothe Larger Parish Is Host To Daughter Of Gov. White Monday

At Parish Fair In City Park Where Program Has Been Arranged.

IGHT

The Chillicothe Larger Parish which now comprises 12 churches in the region around Chillicothe has perfected its organization by electing Mrs. Bernard Young, of Emmitt's Chapel, president; Mrs. Seney West, of Hopetown, vice-president; Mrs. Georgia Scott, Omega, secretary, and Mrs. Mandane Lutz, as treasurer.

The organization has issued an invitation to any church in the rural sections to join with it for the promotion of the spiritual, financial, benevolent and social interests of the organization, if it finds itself in sympathy with the general objectives of the parish.

The parish has arranged a fair to be given in the City Park next Monday, at which a pretentious program has been arranged.

The program as announced comprises the following:

10:00, invocation, Rev. W. A. Cooper, Bourneville, O.; 10:10, "Welcome," Rev. W. A. Motter, Chillicothe, O.; 10:30, presentation of Miss Mary White, daughter and hostess of the governor of Ohio; 10:40, "The Larger Parish," Miss Elizabeth Weaver, of South Salem, O.; 11:00, address, Rev. Geo. A. Weaver, South Salem, Ohio; 11:20, "The Modern Side Show," Mr. Harold Snell, Denver, Colorado; 11:40, "Wild Animal Life—Presentation of Clyde Beatty of Bainbridge, O.," Production Mgr. Rex Rossell.

Armory—Chicken, fish dinners served in dining room; sandwiches, coffee, bean dinners served in luncheon stand; ice cream, pop, etc., served in confectionery; fruit stand, bazaars, quilt and rummage. Souvenirs given away free as you leave the armory. Admission free.

2:30, Hagenbeck-Wallace circus; Chillicothe Larger M. E. Parish Band, Mrs. Eleanor Huff, directing; novelty director, Miss Beulah Huff.

ly so
Thur
anot
were
from he w
Sn
Fran

EAG

TH
sist
have
com
day
local
secre
will clair

Me
plain
Cook
com
rule
With
W
for
and
ed t

So
Club

Clipped By:

Bandman200
Fri, Oct 30, 2020