

A DYNAMITE HIS VOICE IS WILL BOMB BROKE STILL HIS EYE BU UP DANCE DIM

MODERN METHODS JACK HATHAWAY MOD BROKE UP DANCE SUDDENLY CALLED T

Stick of Dynamite Exploded Under the Dance Platform Splinters the Result

Hemorrhage of the Stomach, Supposedly by Partial Asphyxiation, Causes Death

JOHN G. HATHAWAY.

In the article of Francis Sheridan, copy has departed this life. The John G. Hathaway, one of the most prominent men in the city, was taken to his final rest in the city of Chillicothe, Ohio, on Tuesday, September 5, 1905, at the age of 55 years. He was born in the town of New London, Ohio, on September 1, 1849. He was educated in the common schools of his native town and at the Ohio Wesleyan University. He was a member of the Ohio Wesleyan University for many years and was a prominent member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society. He was also a member of the American Bar Association and the Ohio State Bar Association. He was a successful lawyer and had been practicing law in Chillicothe for many years. He was a man of high character and was highly respected by his fellow citizens. He was a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church and was a devoted member of the church. He was a very successful business man and had accumulated a large fortune. He was a very generous man and was a great benefactor of his native town. He was a man of many talents and was a very successful man in every way. He was a man of high character and was highly respected by his fellow citizens. He was a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church and was a devoted member of the church. He was a very successful business man and had accumulated a large fortune. He was a very generous man and was a great benefactor of his native town. He was a man of many talents and was a very successful man in every way.

The dynamite exploded under the dance platform at the Hotel Chillicothe, on Tuesday evening, August 29, 1905, at about 10 o'clock. The explosion was very loud and caused a great deal of damage to the building. The platform was completely destroyed and the dynamite was scattered all over the floor. The explosion caused a great deal of excitement in the city and many people gathered to see the damage. The dynamite was found to be of the same kind as the dynamite that was used in the explosion at the Hotel Chillicothe on August 29, 1905.

BEER PACKERS TRIAL CONTINUED TO SEPT. 18TH

Chicago, Sept. 15.—The government's case against the Chicago brewers in the case of the beer tax was continued today in the federal court in Chicago. The trial is expected to continue for several more days.

Clipped By:

Bandman2020
Thu, Oct 22, 2020