

Hallsville gearing up for Indian summer fest

It may be a little chilly now, but this weekend in Hallsville it will be time to celebrate Indian summer.

Hallsville's 14th Indian Summer Festival on the park grounds on Ohio 180 begins Thursday and continues through Sunday. Proceeds go toward community center upkeep and additions.

All events will take place at the park and in the community center. Following is the schedule of events.

Thursday

■ 5:30 p.m. — Parade of Festival Queen contestants.

■ 6:15 p.m. — Opening ceremony at community center.

■ 6:30 p.m. — Indian Summer Festival Princess Contest.

■ 8 p.m. — Square dancing with Trina Thornton.

Friday

■ Food, drinks, crafts booths, flea market, carnival all day.

■ 6 p.m. — Little Brave, Little Princess contest.

■ 8 p.m. — Square dancing with Night Wind.

Saturday

■ Food, drinks, crafts booths, flea market, carnival all day.

■ 10 a.m. — Kids games, four-wheel drive truck show.

■ 3 p.m. — Magic Show with The Mysterious Dr. Clayton.

■ 4 p.m. — Adelphi Band Concert.

■ 4 p.m. — Bicycle rally.

■ 6:30 p.m. — Parade.

■ 7 p.m. — Mud Run demonstration with four-wheel drive trucks.

■ 8 p.m. — Square dancing with C & R Express.

■ 10 p.m. — Raffle drawing.

Sunday

■ 8:30 a.m. — Breakfast.

■ 10:30 a.m. — Morning worship service and children's workshop.

■ 2 p.m. — Mini tractor pull.

Speedy Special

Clipped By:

mathew5554

Fri, Mar 22, 2019