ALL SET FOR THE BIG "TOUR" ON THURSDAY

Frankfort is Mecca of Chillicothe "Good Willers"—Fine Program is Arranged.

One of the largest and peppiest Good Will tours yet to be sponsored by the local Chamber of Commerce will leave Chillicothe tomorrow at 1 p. m. and wind up at Frankfort, where a special program of entertainment has been arranged by Secretary Louis Laeger.

About 150 are expecting to make the tour. Those who cannot get away for the afternoon will meet at the chamber rooms on West Second street at 5:30 p. m. and Chairman Will Stocklin, of the Good Will Tours Committee will lead them to the feast that awaits them at the Frankfort Presbyterian Church.

After the dinner, speeches will be made by Mayor J. R. Gunning, Rev. L. G. Weber and an address of welcome by Mayor McCoy, of Frankfort. The Huff children, "Pat" Highland and members of the Odd Fellows band will give musical specialties from a platform to be erected in the center of Frankfort's main street.
