GIBISONVILLE SUMMER FESTIVAL

Gibisonville is a small town of approximately sixty people, located on State Route 678, in Hocking County, Ohio. Gibisonville will host its annual Summer Festival on July 5th, 6th and 7th, 2001. The festival is sponsored by a committee of residents from Laurel Township, named the Gibisonville Summer Festival Committee. This committee works very hard to plan activities that will appeal to people of all ages.

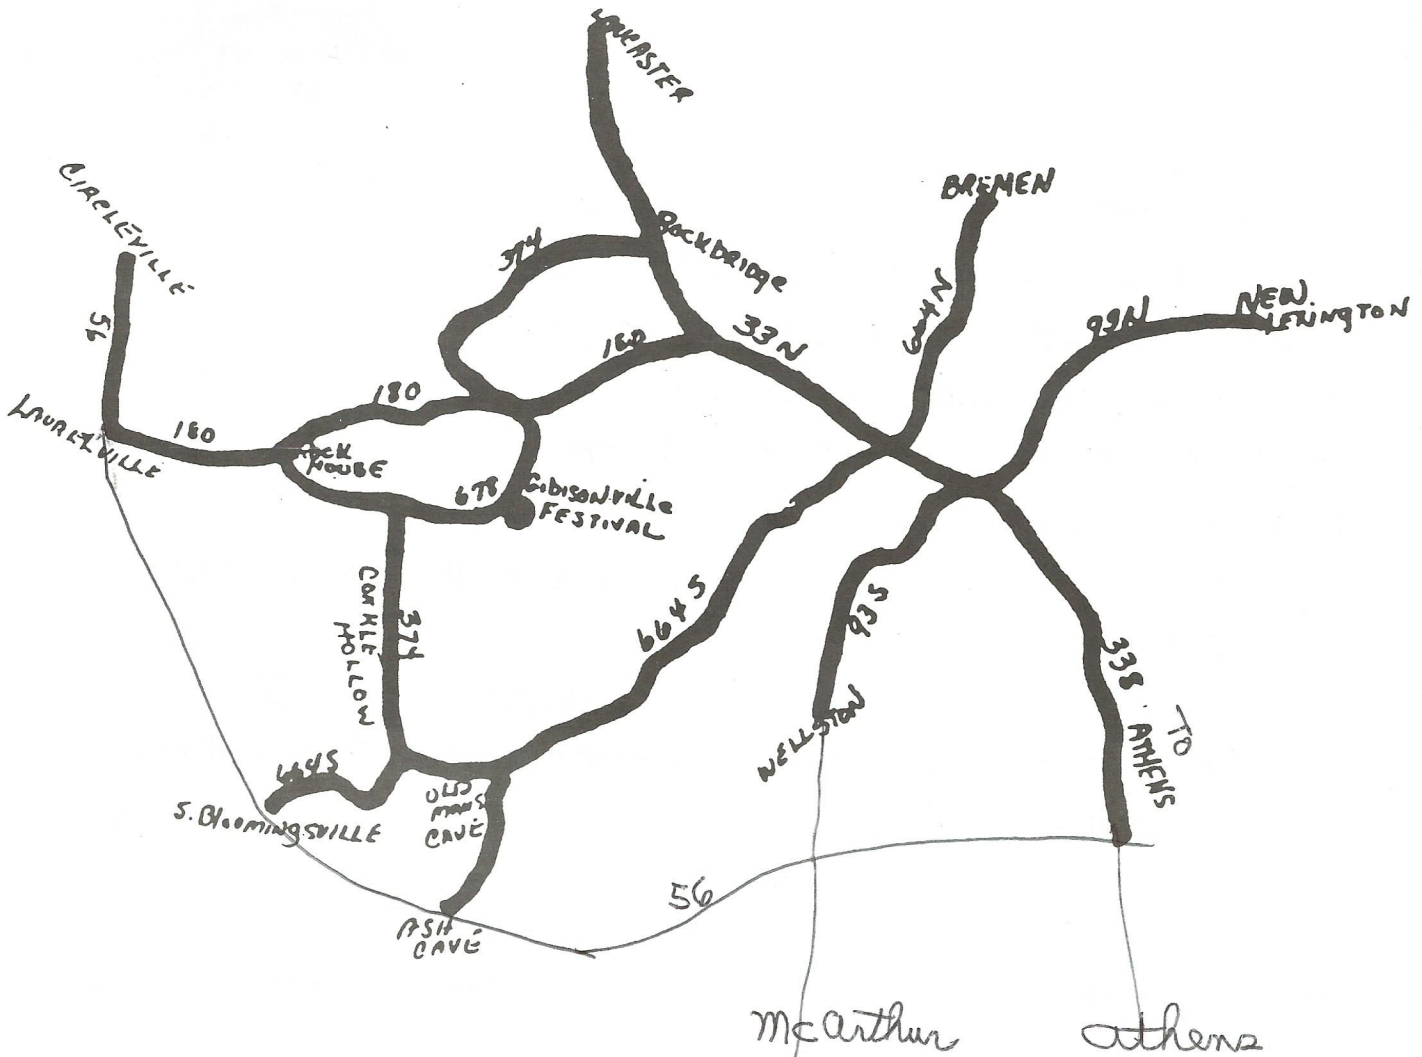

Activities include a large Chinese Auction, Kiddie Tractor Pull, Mule Pull, and Stock Garden Tractor Pull, just to name a few. The festivities begin on the evening of Thursday, July 5th with a Gospel Sing, featuring several groups from the surrounding area. Friday, July 6th, will be the announcement of the Little King and Queen Contest. We will also be having the David Church Side Trak this year. Saturday, July 7th, our annual parade begins at 11:00 a.m. The parade has given us great pleasure for many years. It could possibly be the biggest little parade in southern Ohio. After the parade, the activities get under way and continue through the day. The evening ends with Blackwater Run playing for the entertainment of all. There will be a variety of food concessions on hand.

The Gibisonville Summer Festival Committee would like to invite everyone to join them for a weekend of fun.

FOR DIRECTIONS TO GIBISONVILLE, PLEASE CALL THE LOGAN-HOCKING CHAMBER OF COMMERCE AT 740-385-6836.

The Gibisonville Summer Festival Committee wishes to thank everyone for making this festival booklet possible and hope everyone has a good time.

Hope to see you all again next year!
