

Carolyn Kaye York-Longworth

Carolyn Kaye York-Longworth, 84, died on Saturday, Aug. 3, 2013 at her home in Greenfield.

An extraordinary woman, her accomplishments were too many to list singly, but included contributions in the fields of radio broadcasting, college and public relations, music and theater, as well as participation and leadership in church and civic organizations too numerous to mention.

She was the daughter of longtime Greenfield residents Michal and James M. York, both deceased, and is survived by her sister, two daughters, four grandchildren and a host of family, friends and colleagues throughout Ohio and beyond.

In lieu of flowers, memorial gifts may be made to the charity of one's choice.

The Anderson-Ebright Funeral Home, Greenfield is serving the family. In keeping with her wishes, no services will be held.

Those wishing to sign her online Book of Memories may do so at <http://www.ebrightfuneralhome.com/>.

=====
<http://www.ebrightfuneralhome.com./book-of-memories/1642826/York-Longworth-C/index.php>

=====

C. Kaye
York-Longworth
1929 - 2013