Newsletter

March 8, 2023

Greetings!

It's that time again. This is a reminder of the practice this coming Monday, March 13th. Included, you should find the list and order of the songs. As with any practice, we might not get to all of them, but we might.

Below that is "bonus content"! That translates into "other stuff you might like to know". This covers future practice dates, performance dates (both known and anticipated), and an invitation to explore another band in our community.

Enjoy!

John Mathew

Band Practice Location and Time:

At this point, ALL band practices will be at the:

Calvary UM Church
427 South Washington Street
Circleville, Ohio
Start at 7:30 PM
Use the door with the ramp off the alley in the back

Things to Bring to EVERY practice or performance, to infinity and beyond:

- a). Your own instrument
- b). Your own music
- c). Your own clothes pins
(yes, practice is inside, but the wind can still blow the music when the door is opened).
- d). Your own music stand....any style you have is fine
- e). a pencil...yes...always bring that pesky pencil....and don't be afraid to use it.

As always, sound files of our songs can be found on the band web page:

Things you may want to have with you for any performance or practice.

I had shared some of these thoughts in a previous newsletter on the things I always have with me during any community band performance or practice, and why. Since we have fortunately had so many new musicians play with us in the last couple years, I thought I would place that info on the band SCHEDULE page as a continuing reference.

I certainly made mistakes in my earlier years, I learned from at least some of them, and maybe this information will help others to not stumble down the same crooked path I first took.

Another Great Band to Listen to:

The Lancaster Community Band will be giving a FREE concert on Sunday March 12. Info is below. I listen to them often, they do an excellent job, and they program much differently than any of the community bands around here.

The church is easy to get to, parking is plentiful, lots of seating, and the church is really pretty.
