

A GREAT MIXTURE OF ENTERTAINMENT

Adelphi Community Band
Circleville-Pickaway Visitors Pavilion
Saturday, October 20 – 6:00-7:00 PM

The Adelphi Community Band was organized in 1880 to play in parades, festivals, and concerts in various parks. They first performed at the Pumpkin Show in 1925, playing at the various "Free Acts" including the Aerial Trapeze Acts, High Dive, and Horizontal Bars Acts. The group has had 14 different directors in their 128 year history. John Brown is the current director, and Glenn Hinton is the band manager. The Adelphi Community Band makes about 25 appearances each year in Ohio.
