

William Lockwood Huff

January 16, 1875 – November 5, 1942

“The Chillicothe Composer”

A Narrative

Volume 11

Pages: 648-End

ATTACHMENT:
144

Part 1

41 West Man Street, Chillicothe, Ohio

What was once the address of a residence for William Lockwood Huff Jr (1916-1984), is now apparently a parking lot.

Link to 11-9-1938 article

Link to 4-3-939 article

The address of the building to the left (radio station) is 45
The address of the building to the right (bank) is 33

ATTACHMENT:
144

Part 2

41 West Man Street, Chillicothe, Ohio

What was once the address of a residence for William Lockwood Huff Jr (1916-1984), is now apparently a parking lot.

Link to 11-9-1938 article

Link to 4-3-1939 article

The address of the building to the left (radio station) is 45

The address of the building to the right (bank) is 33

Below is the radio station to the left of the parking lot with an address of 45

ATTACHMENT:
144

Part 3

41 West Man Street, Chillicothe, Ohio

What was once the address of a residence for William Lockwood Huff Jr (1916-1984), is now apparently a parking lot.

Link to 11-9-1938 article

Link to 4-3-1939 article

The address of the building to the left (radio station) is 45

The address of the building to the right (bank) is 33

Below is the bank to the right of the parking lot with an address of 33

Attachment
145

May 10, 1945 Chillicothe Gazette

One of the many bands that Will Huff at least conducted was the Londonderry Cornet Band.
This is a picture of the band taken May 30, 1896.

Link to 5-10-1945 article

LONDONDERRY CONCERT BAND—Remember 'Em?—Shown in this picture taken May 30, 1896 are left to right: Seated in foreground—Franklin Farabee, clarinet; C. W. Thomas, cornet; Samuel Bowser, cornet; Edward Wiltshire, clarinet. Second row, seated—Eltin Peecher, alto horn; Robert Francis, cornet; James Murphy, alto; J. P. Shenault, bass drum; John Francis, cornet; William Wimer, tenor horn. Back row, standing—L. G. Thomas, tuba; Pearl Tagg, B-flat; George Farabee, baritone; William Meeker, slide trombone; Lemon Meeker, trombone; G. Elmer Parrett, trap drummer.

END OF CHAPTER 22: ATTACHMENTS

END OF NARRATIVE

on

William Lockwood Huff

January 16, 1875 – November 5, 1942

“The Chillicothe Composer”

Information Compiled Through Research Done by:
Jeff Mathew
2020-2021