SECTION # 1: INTRODUCTION

Let’s just call this what it is.....a biography.....written by an admitted amateur.

But, in this case written by an amateur fairly experienced in this subject matter since I have proudly been a part of the Adelphi Community Band for just south of 60 years.

But having said that, this is easily the most comprehensive biography written so far on what has been proven to be one of the oldest community bands in the nation, The Adelphi Community Band of Adelphi, Ohio.

This biography is basically a chronological story of the band, its musicians, the music, the events they performed for, and all its various activities through the years based on the information currently known to us from the over 3,000 documents currently found in the band's digital library.

<https://adelphiband.weebly.com/>

The Adelphi Community Band has pretty much always been “kind of” based in Adelphi, a small town in northeast Ross County, Ohio with a current population of @ 330. However, the musicians participating in the band have also come from numerous surrounding small towns, from surrounding counties, and even from other states. Coming back to play in the band from considerable distances for specific events has always been kind of a “homecoming” of sorts for the musicians.

For multiple reasons, the band has also been known to hold its practices in Adelphi, Hallsville, (another small town near by), Adelphi again, and most recently even in Circleville, Ohio. Circleville is a town located @ 30 minutes away from Adelphi but much closer to the home communities of the current musicians.

The band officially claims a start date of 1880. However, some local documents written for the Centennials, Sesquicentennials, and even Bicentennials of the surrounding towns actually list substantially earlier dates.... a topic that will be discussed later.

The band has often been billed as the oldest band in Ohio and one of the oldest in the nation. That can be an honest discussion point as there are several bands in Ohio, let alone nationwide, that openly claim a specific start date that may be earlier than the one claimed by the Adelphi Community Band. Yet, when you read the details from their own web pages, many of those bands will stake a claim to a “start” date earlier than 1880, but will acknowledge that there have been several times in their histories when the bands ceased operations for a time, or two, only to come back sometimes several years later and begin operations again under the very same band names.

However, even with that as a qualifier....or even a disqualifier....we so far have only uncovered a very few community bands nationwide that try to claim any kind of start date earlier than 1880.

Regardless of the absence of any kind of official, nationwide ranking of how old the Adelphi Community Band is compared to other community bands, it has certainly been around long enough, and has been active enough, to rightfully hold a significant role in its several decade history of its particular section of Southern Ohio.

Between the stories shared by the older musicians during down time in performances, to countless newspaper and magazine articles that can now be found in the band's digital library, it seems like there haven't been many events, or even many kinds of events, in South Central Ohio in the last 143 years where you would not have found the band performing.

The band has played for a variety of functions in a variety of places, to include political rallies and politicians (regardless of what political party was being supported at the event), county fairs, bond rallies, state fairs, birthday parties, corporate picnics, dedications and rededications, centennial celebrations, sesquicentennial celebrations, bicentennial celebrations, riverboats, Presidents, Vice-Presidents, Governor Inaugurations, and for pretty much any festival that celebrated any kind of food, vegetable, event, or flower.

You would have also found the band performing in support of the military by playing for the soldiers returning home from Porto Rico (1898), to a day-long picnic for 170 Glider Pilots training close to Circleville (1942), to playing for one of the last two Civil War Veterans from Ross County (1941), to selling war bonds, and for numerous other related events.

NOTE:

This paragraph references “Porto Rico” and not “Puerto Rico”.

Here is an explanation for the apparently current change in spelling:

On December 7, 1931, Congress passed S.J. Res. 36, which changed the spelling of “Porto Rico” to “Puerto Rico” in official U.S. records, documents, and communications.

The music the band continues to play, and for which it is well known by their enthusiastic audiences, remains fairly unique among area community bands. Anyone attending a performance by The Adelphi Community Band would have the opportunity to hear almost exclusively the classic marches, serenades, and novelty numbers written from the late 1800's to the early 1900's. This was the time when many music scholars acknowledge that some of the best music of this type was being written and played around the world, thanks to the compositions of Sousa, Jewell, Alford, Chillicothe's own Will Huff, King, Fillmore, and many others.

Several years ago, an unofficial web site for the band was started by one of its musicians in order to help preserve this invaluable history of the band, and to let any prospective audience member or musician know of the band's upcoming performance schedule. Over these intervening years, several thousands of hours have been spent digitally scanning any pictures, Internet articles, and literally any scrap of paper that could be found related to the band or any of its musicians, in order to make that information available through the band’s web site. This has included personal notes, band newsletters, concert programs, correspondence, practice lists, and both magazine and newspaper articles.

And, we even have both the audio recording, as well as the written transcript, of a local radio interview three of the most senior musicians did in 1980 after returning in from performing at the band’s 100th anniversary concert on the steps of the Capitol Building in Washington DC.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=9WZk5ZtL6L8&feature=youtu.be>

But even with all of that accomplished thus far, general Internet searches are still routinely being done in order to find unexpected sources of documentation about the band, to include trade and specialty publications, and the vast networks of various social media platforms. One of the most fascinating, and unexpected, discoveries that came from this research was found in a blog from apparently a Pickaway County (Ohio) resident who compared the beauty of a boat “parade” in Venice, Italy to the Adelphi Community Band playing in the Circleville Pumpkin Show!

We will let the author’s words from that particular discovery speak for itself:

“We do a lot of parades in Ohio. After 18 years here I know a parade when I see one. This was a Parade. On boats. I’m thinking this is where the tradition of Parades got started, as it makes sense why they are called “floats” now. This float combined the musicianship of the Adelphi Band with the royal personages of the Pumpkin Show Queen and court. Yes, I am comparing Venice to Circleville, Ohio’s Pumpkin Show Parade”. (1-15-2018)

Amazing!

The result of all this work has simultaneously been immensely rewarding to read, staggering in its volume, and somewhat intimidating for all the stories and raw information about the band that all of these items have held that has never been found in one place before.....until now.

As of this writing, this unofficial band web site has grown from a vague draft of a concept to a fairly extensive history of the band, which can be expected for a community band that claims a start date of 1880....or perhaps 1873....but we’ll cover that later in this biography.

The band’s web site also currently includes well over @ 3,000 pictures dating back to @ 1890, ten years after the band’s declared start date. Plus, there are links to many YouTube videos and audio recordings of band concerts that have been captured since 1969!

<https://adelphiband.weebly.com/videos.html>

It is both amusing, and intimidating, to just sit and ponder about how much more complete this history of the band could be, and how many more thousands of documents, pictures, and videos of the band we would have available to enjoy, if everyone would have had smart phones and Facebook pages as far back as the 1880’s!

While I personally use the band’s web site on an almost daily basis in order to remind myself of past events in which I personally participated, to enjoy the music, and to reflect on lost friends and musicians, I have also enjoyed finding out more about those places and events discussed by the other musicians about which I heard many stories through the years.

As a result of all this time spent researching the band, it certainly became apparent that the amount of information already found about it can be overwhelming. It also quickly became apparent that anyone really wanting to do some personal research on the band on any particular topic could benefit from some central source that would show a little more information on what each document on the band website is about than can be gleaned by just visually scanning the names of the computer files on the band’s website. A cryptic file name limited by computer software constraints sadly often leaves very little clue as to the total treasure trove of information that can be found in any particular document.

So, those thoughts gave birth to this biography.

This biography will take documents from the band web site and list:

- The source
- Date of the item
- The event the band was playing for and any interesting facts about it,
- The name(s) used in that document to reference the band
- The names of any musicians listed as being with the band
- The names of the songs being played
- A hyperlink from each document summary back to the original Internet document so that anyone with sufficient interest can go back and read the entire document for further information. I actually highly recommend the Reader do this. It is one thing to find that the band played at an event at 7:30 PM on a specific date and time. But it is another pleasant discovery to also see what else was happening around the band on that date, at that location, and at that time.

There are several potential benefits to this entire process:

- Since the intent is to present this document electronically, creating the hyperlink from each document summary back to its complete original gives this project a “full circle” approach.
- Over the considerable history of the band, and often for unknown reasons, various publications have listed the band with different names. Sometimes even the musicians apparently weren’t specific in relating in any specific document what the “official” name of the band was.

Sadly, questions probably still unsolved by even this considerable amount of research include:

- Was there ever only ONE band between Hallsville and Adelphi?
- or ONE band from each city that combined at some point?

While the majority of the information researched would lead to one conclusion, there are some documents containing several confirmed inaccuracies that would support an entirely different one.

Through all of that informality, it has been difficult to separate any official band name from nicknames given by friends and family, or just outright mistakes that maybe can be attributed to lazy journalism.

Sometimes the names found in these articles that have been given to the band have been outright amusing. Some have just been crazy. And some have had at least a grain of truth in them. It was thought that adding this research component about all the band name variations into this project might possibly answer questions that some of us (now) more senior musicians have always wondered about in filling in gaps in the band's history.

But one constant is this entire debate is that if we have a picture of the band with a band name on the Bass Drum, then that apparently WAS an official name of the band at that specific point in time. In all of our years of musical experience, we have pretty much found that Bass Drums don't lie!

- The musicians in the band are often approached by enthusiastic audience members with the questions of, “Do any of you remember (insert person’s name here)? He/she played in the band at some point!”

The truth is that, not surprisingly, there have been very few efforts found to date to comprehensively list the musicians who have ever played in the band over its current 143 year history.

One fairly thorough attempt, however, tried to document the musicians, Majorettes, Directors, and Drum Majors who participated in the band from 1923 to 1975, a span of almost 52 years. That list came up with @ 170 names, but those years currently only comprise about a third of the length of the band's current existence. The research for this biography has now helped to document over 340 musicians total to date who have been found to have played in the band, which is certainly the most comprehensive effort on this topic to date.

Sadly, however, even the hours spent creating this new list of musicians will still leave it grossly incomplete. There are likely documents in existence, somewhere, that would help to answer more of these questions and better flesh out this specific component of the band's history. But they have not yet been made available yet for review.

- Each document summary provided in this biography will have enough info to give you a better idea as to what is included in each article.

Since this biography is searchable by text, the reader can easily jump from specific event to specific event, track a specific musician's activities from year to year, look up the names of the songs played during both performances and practices, and even just focus on specific time periods.

- Not unexpectedly, there is a lot of duplication of information in the documents found in the band library that I have tried to not replicate here.

For example, to the credit of many of the event organizers, the same event information would be in multiple articles over multiple days in the same newspaper. Then, this same information, and even the very same article, would also be posted in multiple newspapers from other sources across the state.

For at least some sense of brevity, this project will not attempt to summarize each document in the library if all it does is repeat the same information found in other documents from either the same, or different, sources.

You are now ready to start reading this biography.

I have to confess that it has been fun for me to get to this point in the process of preparing this biography. To personalize this, this band has been a big part of almost 60 years to date in the lives of my brother and I, and a good many years in the lives of our parents, my wife, and our son.

And after all, this band has some amazing stories to tell!

And Lastly, Why is This Labeled Volume 1?:

Well, that decision was the result of a slow-walking realization that, no matter the level of thoroughness reached in researching the information presented in this document, there is considerably more information out there that access to might be granted at some future date.

In fact, I have just recently obtained several more documents on the band that will provide a good start to a Volume 2!

When this type of situation happens, then there are really only two choices to consider:

Try to incorporate all the new information into the information already included here.

Not a very convenient option.

This process results in trying to repeatedly slide through a computer document now @ 1,600 pages long in order to insert the newly found article into the correct chronological and alphabetical slot, pulling out the names of musicians, events, and Directors to add to the separate lists compiled from all this research, and so on.

Or, just go ahead and write an additional volume, or additional volumes, with any additional volumes capturing the new information discovered since the release of Volume 1.

Without question the first option is extremely tedious.

I have already done that to some extent with this document, and that experience has firmly convinced me that the second option of multiple volumes will satisfy even my level of curiosity about the band's history in a much quicker, but equally efficient, manner.

Decision made.

INTRODUCTION

SECTION # 2:
WAIT...THE BAND IS HOW OLD?

---

SECTION # 2: WAIT...THE BAND IS HOW OLD?

One of the first topics that needs to be addressed is trying to identify exactly how old the band is.

As confirmed in numerous documents produced over many decades, the band has consistently claimed a start date of 1880. In fact, that is the date that served as the foundation on which the band traveled to Washington DC to perform on the steps of the Capitol Building in 1980 in recognition and celebration of its 100th anniversary. And for the band to have been recognized in the Ohio Statehood Day Activities in 1980. And both for and during countless other official documents and presentations.

However, for pretty much every document found that specifically lists a start date of “1880”, there can probably be found at least one more document that just gives a generalized range of when the band started:

- The band has been going almost 90 years,
- The band started almost 60 years ago.

And so on.

As can be expected for any organization this old, however, the selection and recognition of 1880 as the official start date for the band comes with multiple mathematical and mechanical difficulties.

- Who would have thought in 1880 that the band would have lasted THIS long, or even anticipate that any accurate and readily available record that could be found of anything involving the band, or anyone involved with the band, might prove to be of considerable interest in the many decades since?
- In the absence of an abundance of either convincing and detailed paperwork, or even corroborating pictures conclusively proving one start date over another, much of the band's history is now solely dependent on available newspaper articles and memory. Not surprisingly in the researching of this biography, neither of these sources have proven to be incredibly reliable.
- Sadly, and maybe as anecdotal evidence of of the perils of relying on anyone’s personal memories for this research, with my own advancing seniority in the band I have sometimes surprised myself to find how easy it is to quit worrying about the detailed accuracy of any of the stories I share about the band. At this point in my life, I have so far outlived all but a couple of the other musicians who were there at the time of practically any event being discussed, and who could still convincingly contradict me.
- The band's history is complicated due to the fact that the “official” band name apparently changed with some frequency throughout it's history. Or, in some cases, did it? Sadly, journalists of any level can often be either notoriously unreliable, lazy, or dependent upon the information given to them, which may not have been accurate in the first place.

- And sometimes you just have to wonder if the journalist was being pranked by whichever musician was being interviewed at the time based on the extremely odd name of the band subsequently used in that article.
- There is some confusion from all the stories referencing the history of the band, especially when multiple articles talk about some of the musicians starting in 1924 because that's when it was “reorganized”.....the exact word used in many of the articles. There has been very little information found that reliably offers any explanation for the word “reorganized” in this sense. But finding this information and that specific term in only a few articles out of over 3,000? Are any of these few articles true, false, or just imperfect memories? The Reader can review the specific contents of any related articles later in this biography and make his/her own decision.
- The bottom line is that, if you don't even know the names the band used to identify itself through all these centuries and decades, than how can you even begin too tell how old it is?

This is discussed in some detail in Section 19, “What's in a Name?” where an examination of the documents in the band's digital library have revealed almost 30 different names used to reference the band. Some of these names used to identify the band are certainly true. Some are possible. Some are clearly incorrect. And some are just crazy, for lack of a better word.

Often, as many as 2 or three totally different names for the band were used even in the same article. But, more often than that, the same newspaper would use 2 or more different names for the band in the sequence of articles that were written to follow any specific event from planning, to the day of the actual event, and through to the usual post event after-glow discussion by the event organizers.

However, someone arbitrarily selecting the band start date as 1880 has admittedly had at least some level of consistency in the articles written about the band over many decades. But still not without exceptions, as noted below

Here are some of the examples found from the band documents on any discussion about the age of the band.

7-31-1962, Chillicothe Gazette:

According to Arthur Hinton, Superintendent of the Centralia Schools, the Adelphi Band was organized more than 75 years ago, by the Bowsher Brothers. It was then known as Bowsher's Bunch.

NOTE:

1962 minus 75 would indicate an approximate band start date of 1887.

8-2-1963, Chillicothe Gazette:

On 8-2-1963, the Chillicothe Gazette published an article about the Clarksburg Field Day that stated, “Entertaining crowds at the 48th annual Clarksburg Field Day was the Adelphi Community Band. According to Pryor Timmons, the band which is composed almost entirely of farmers, is the oldest community band in Ohio, having been organized some 80 years ago.”

NOTE:

1963 minus 80 equals an approximate start date for the band of 1883.

8-25-1969, Chillicothe Gazette:

“Since 1920, a group of musicians have been performing as the Adelphi Community Band”

NOTE:

It is difficult to know where the journalist got this information, or why he/she chose to write this article in this vague manner.

And even for many decades after that, many other names for the band were used and often the terms “Adelphi Band” and “Adelphi Community Band” were used interchangeably, and often both in the same article.

The term “Adelphi Band” has been seen in articles as early as 1898.

5-26-1973, Chillicothe Gazette:

Adelphi Band going strong at 93

This weekend, the 93 year old organization will provide toe-tapping tunes for the Adelphi Balogna Festival visitors and stirring martial medleys to commemorate Memorial Day, past and present.

The Adelphi Community Band was formally organized in 1880.

6-28-1975, Lancaster Eagle Gazette:

There is a picture in this article. The caption below the picture states:

“A row of Trumpeters of the Adelphi Band fill the air with old time rhythm at the Tarlton Fish Fry Thursday evening. The band of men range in age from 16 to 85 and have homes across Fairfield, Pickaway, and Ross Counties. Members claim that the Adelphi Band is the oldest of its type in the state. The original band of 1884 was a mixture of Hallsville and Adelphi residents. Ninety years later, the band still plays at over a dozen festivals in mid-Ohio through the summer season.

Later in the same article, it states:

“The village of Adelphi, nestled in the northeast nook of Ross County, has quietly enjoyed the melodic machinations of their community band since about 1884.”

Later in the same article, it states:

According to David Pontious, the band was functioning in 1884 when his father, Chauncey, was playing at the age of 14.

7-2-1975, Logan Daily News:

The band dates back to at least 1884, After its first few years, the group merged with the Hallsville Band, and retained the name Adelphi Community Band, according to Dave Pontious of Laurelville.

Chauncey (Pontious), born in 1870, started with the band when he was 14, and played cornet and baritone through the years.

NOTE:

This statement came from Dave Pontious, one of the members who started with the "reorganization" of the band in 1924. Dave is the son of Chauncey. By this accounting, then, the band would have started at least by 1884. Chauncey was supposed to be one of the original band members from 1880.

6-29-1980, Transcript of a Radio Interview with Dave Pontious, Herman Hinton, and Dave Hinton:

In June 1980, Dave Pontious, Herman Hinton, and Dave Hinton were interviewed by Circleville Radio station WNRE. That station was physically located in a building right next to Rt 23, on the west side of the road, and just north of Circleville. The radio station has been off the air for decades, although the building is still there. It has been repurposed in the decades since the 1980 radio interview.

That radio interview was recorded by one of the musicians onto a cassette, and later made into a YouTube video, and a typed transcript prepared for convenience. The link below is to the typed transcript.

In this radio interview, Dave Pontious is clearly heard stating the following:

“Seems like at that ....uh...at .one time they had the Hallsville and Adelphi Bands. Each. There was 2 bands. But they was...there were all together. They were the same people, you might say “

---

NOTE:

Of all the thousands of documents searched for this project, David Pontious stated that there was a band in Hallsville and a band in Adelphi at the same time.

However, if this were true, you would think that, since the both bands were is such close proximity to each other, about 3 miles apart, that they would both be invited to perform at the same events. Yet, no such article has been found to show that this happened.

And in contrast, Laurelville had a Community Band, and several articles can be found where both the Laurelville Band and the Adelphi Band performed at the same event.

With all respect to David, the weight of the evidence we have on hand at this moment does not support his assertion that both Hallsville and Adelphi had bands at the same time.

4-27-1996, Chillicothe Gazette:

By the early 1870s, brass bands were sprouting around the country. By 1873 there were three such bands in Chillicothe and one each in Bainbridge, Massieville, Adelphi, and Bourneville. After all these years, Adelphi Band is still swinging.

https://adelphiband.weebly.com/uploads/4/6/0/1/46013629/4-27-1996\_chillicothe\_gazette\_looking\_back\_1866-1875.pdf

However, there have also been other documents discovered that would actually support the position that the band was either started several years earlier, or even several years later than 1880.

Booklet (Written for the Hallsville, Ohio Centennial):*Economy-1837*Hallsville-1937(Page 15)The Hallsville Band

Hallsville’s first band was organized around 1889 or 1888 with Mont Long as Instructor.

The members were:

- Thaddeus Binkley,
- Douglas and Cliff Walker,
- William and Frank Strawser,
- Dennis and Chauncey B. Pontious,
- Edward and Luther Maag,
- Luther and Ellis Jones,
- Ellerslie Dresbach,
- Frank DiVita,
- B.C. Reed,
- Andrew J,
- Orley Wiggins

Today, many of the younger folks are members of the school band at Centralia. While an organization made up of the older generation is still in effect.

These members are:

- David Orville,
- Damon Pontious,
- Ellerslie Dresbach,
- Chas. Gildersleeve and son Eugene,

- Amos and F.M. Bowsher,
- Raymond Hedges,
- John Turner,
- Earl Patterson,
- Pearl Hinton,
- Curtis Hinton,
- John Hinton,
- Herman Hinton
- Arthur Hinton
- Howard Buckwalter,
- Raymond Clark,
- Richard Fox

The band is always much in evidence during the Memorial Day Services, and the civic pride displayed on this occasion is a matter of note among the strangers who visit with us, then. The services rendered by the Hallsville Band have always been appreciated by the entire community.

This article is about a picnic held by the Adelphi I.O.R.M (Improved Order of Red Men).

Fully 3,000 people were in evidence at the delightful outing of yesterday.

The picnic held yesterday at Brundige's Grove, under the auspices of the Corn Planter Tribe I.O.R.M. Of Adelphi, was in every sense a most enjoyable affair, there being fully 3,000 people in attendance. The grove is located between Adelphi and Kingston.

While an invitation had been extended to every Red Man of the county, owing to the threatening weather, Chillicothe only sent 3 out of a possible 150.

In the afternoon, after enjoying a good dinner, speeches were made. Following the remarks, there was a baseball game between the Adelphi and Kingston 9.

Another pleasant feature of the picnic was the music which was rendered by the Adelphi Cornet Band.

Band Name: Adelphi Cornet Band

Reason for article:

This article is about a Free Silver meeting held “at the twin villages of Laurelville and Adelphi”.

The Free Silver meeting held at the twin villages of Laurelville and Adelphi was the largest and most enthusiastic gathering of people ever witnessed in that part of the country.

A conservative estimate of the people gathered was at 6,000.

The afternoon rally was held at the beautiful Mineral Springs Grove, midway between the two villages. The speakers, escorted by 50 of the handsomest young ladies of Ross County mounted on beautifully caparisoned steeds and headed by the Adelphi Cornet Band marched to the Grove.

There were several speeches, and one lasted over 2 hours.

NOTE:

“Caparisoned” means: “(of a horse) be decked out in rich decorative coverings. "his horse was caparisoned with colored ribbons”.

Yeah, I had to look that word up.

NOTE:

I also had no idea what a “Free Silver” meeting was all about, so I looked that up, too.

From the Encyclopedia Britannica:

“Free Silver Movement:

in late 19th-century American history, advocacy of unlimited coinage of silver.

The movement was precipitated by an act of Congress in 1873 that omitted the silver dollar from the list of authorized coins (the “Crime of ’73”). Supporters of free silver included owners of silver mines in the West, farmers who believed that an expanded currency would increase the price of their crops, and debtors who hoped it would enable them to pay their debts more easily. For true believers, silver became the symbol of economic justice for the mass of the American people.”

The town hall at Hallsville was tested to its fullest capacity on Saturday evening to hear Cassell Foster and Gen. Hurst express their views on the political problems which the two great parties are engaged in solving.

A half hour before the speakers arrived, every chair was taken and standing room reached a premium when the Adelphi Cornet Band had concluded its opening number.

Quite a delegation, composed of 100 members of the Kingston McKinley Club, and the Glee Club, came over by special train and contributed largely to the enthusiastic success of the meeting.

The Glee Club rendered several campaign ballads, while the meeting was in progress, which gained for the vocalists much hearty applause of which they were eminently deserving.

Red Men are Here in Force and Have Entered Upon the Business Meeting of the Great Council of the Great State of Ohio.

The Red Men are here, and notwithstanding the miserable and shabby treatment of the weather clerk, everyone seems to be having a good time.

The first of the tribes and councils to appear were those from Manchester and West Union, who marched up to headquarters, headed by their band. This morning the arrivals came in earnest.

There was Portsmouth, with one of the best bands in the state.

Coalton, Jackson, and Wellston with a band.

Adelphi with a band.

The rain and mud virtually spoiled the parade, for the uniformed rank did not care to participate in it and ruin their feathers and uniforms by drudging through the mud.

Grand Marshall Swepston and staff led the van of the parade, and then came the Adelphi Band, followed by Company H, the idols of the people. The boys trudged through the mud and never wavered. They were used to it and received applause all along the line.

Then came police in platoon formation,. The Londonderry Band came next.

One of the most delightful events of the day was the serenade given the Gazette by the River City Band of Portsmouth. This was one of the best bands attending the gathering, and their delightful music was highly appreciated. The band is composed of 20 pieces, and every member is a first class musician, judging by the well executed pieces rendered during the serenade.

The Adelphi Border news stated that by tomorrow evening, everything will be in readiness the by members of the Corn Planters Tribe for the reception of our soldier boys (who just returned from Porto Rico).

The original thought was to just make the reception for the 6 members of the tribe, but those plans changed to take in all the soldiers and their families from this area, which included:

one from Kinnikinnick	6 from Kingston	4 from Hallsville
3 from Stringtown	1 from Whistler	2 from Laurelville
one from Nancy	2 from Pike Run	4 Adelphi boys

The large storeroom in the Red Mans building has been temporarily converted into an entertainment hall. On the stage will be placed a piano. After the entertainment, the soldiers and their families will repair to the banquet room upstairs where supper will be served in 3 courses. During the banquet, the Kinnikinnick orchestra will discourse sweet melody.

The entertainment program includes the Adelphi Brass Band playing:

“America”	“Marching Through Georgia”	Col Roosevelt’s March”
-----------	----------------------------	------------------------

Adele Swinehart will perform “Our Boys Are Coming Home”, which was written especially for this occasion.

The menu included oysters, crackers, celery, chicken, turkey, ham, tongue, bread and butter, pickles, slaw, salads, coffee, tea, cake, and ice cream,

Dedicating the new wigwam for the Corn Planter Tribe of the Adelphi I.O.R.M. (Improved Order of Red Men).

The town of Adelphi is in the hands of Indians today, or at least the Red Men have captured it. The occasion of the outbreak of the tribes was the dedication of the new wigwam of the Corn Planter's Tribe.

The new wigwam is substantially built, a 3 story brick building and is the best, if not one of the best, buildings in Adelphi. The ground floor includes business rooms, the middle floor is a large hall for meetings and gatherings, and the top floor is for the lodge rooms. The day was filled with band concerts, vocal concerts, speeches, and meals.

The Tribe from Logan came over 100 strong, Circleville sent a big contingent headed by its cadet band of 23 pieces, and the Adelphi Band is out making things lively.

11-14-1906, Chillicothe Gazette:

Band Name: Adelphi Band

Reason for article:

County Treasurer M.F. Partee was called to Adelphi due to a robbery on his store.

Burglars took a shutter off a window to gain access. They took a gold watch valued at $14.00, a gold pen and holder, and a gold toothpick.

From Mr. Patterson's store, which is also the Post Office, they took $16.00 from the safe belonging to the Adelphi Band, and $35.00 belonging to the Building and Loan Company.

They opened up the registered mail from Mr. Dresback and took $48.00. Gold glasses belonging to Mrs. Patterson were also taken.

1916

5-20-1916, Chillicothe Gazette:

Band Name: Hallsville Brass Band

Reason for article:

Scioto Township Had One Big Entertainment

The Scioto Township School Commencement at Massieville on Friday May 19, was a most surprising success, for none could conceive the bigness of the exhibits of the several schools of the township in the town hall, embracing the subjects taught, manual training, domestic science, agriculture, and especially were the exhibits of spelling and composition most highly commendable.

A picnic dinner was served at noon, which included stunts like a "fat mans race".

An excellent program of music was given by the Hallsville Brass Band.

8-24-1916, Chillicothe Gazette:

Band Name: Bowsher Bunch from Hallsville

Reason for article:

Bean Bake was largely attended.

Several hundred people attended the 16th annual outing at Gearhart Grove was given under the auspices of Mt. Carmel ME Church, was an official success-for all the candidates for county offices were there and they didn't fail to make their presence known.

There were several hundred persons present, including the candidates, farmers, the Bowsher Bunch from Hallsville, and demonstrators for different pieces of merchandise.

The entertainment included a band concert, demonstrations of merchandise, politicians, and farmers. The men were conspicuous for their absence, this being the time of year for harvesting the corn crop for canning. Hope was expressed, however, that before the day passed, that the crowd would grow to a proportion surpassing records made in years gone by.

Good music was furnished by the band, and several interesting talks were made by prominent men of the county.

Pumpkin Show Success Even Beyond Ideas. 27th Annual Show to be Completed Tonight With Great Throng in City. Bands Show Pep. Parades win approval of all spectators Friday.

Circleville's 27th annual Pumpkin Show will come to an end at midnight tonight, and drawing conclusions from the great crowd which swarmed the city early Saturday morning, this is going to be the gala day of the entire Pumpkin Show.

Friday's crowd was an exceptionally large one for Friday, and everyone was more than satisfied with the three parades. The Industrial Parade was scheduled for 3 O'clock, with the Pet Parade proceeding in just one-half hour.

The Adelphi Band, the Ashville Community Band, and the Laurelville Band were blaring their music up and down the streets in true Pumpkin Show Fashion. All the bands seemed to be possessed of the fact that today was the final day of the big celebration of the Pumpkin Show, and were doing their best to make everyone feel the same way.

Band Name: Adelphi Band

Reason for article:

This article is about a day long picnic Circleville held for glider pilots from Lockbourne.

Picnic for soldiers to be held rain or shine. Whether it rains or shines, Circleville's big picnic at Gold Cliff park Sunday for about 200 Lockbourne air base trainees will be conducted. L.W. Kinsey, the committee chairman said that there is shelter space for 600, so that even if it rains, the event will go on as scheduled.

He put another appeal for automobiles and food, and the vehicles to transport the mend from the base and back again. All persons driving to the base should meet at the courthouse at 9:00 on Sunday.

A gala day's planned starting at 10:00. The picnic dinner will be served buffet style starting at Noon. A softball game will be played between the air base men and the Lutheran church team. There will be numerous forms of entertainment, to include swimming, dancing, and skating, all free of charge of the soldiers.

An additional diversion was promised Saturday when one of the instigators promised that the Adelphi Band would be on-hand for the afternoon.

Mrs. Ted Lewis, wife of entertainer Ted Lewis, will be unable to attend but has donated money with which to buy cigarettes for the Lockbourne boys.

8-31-1942, Circleville Herald:

Band Name: Adelphi Band

Reason for article:

This article is about a day long picnic Circleville held for glider pilots from Lockbourne.

170 Glider Soldiers Guests of County at Picnic Sunday. Tables groaned under cakes and Fried Chicken. Trainees eat, skate, dance, swim, play ball, enjoy full afternoon. Citizens join whole heartedly in an effort to entertain uniformed guests.

Informality marked the event, all local residents being just plain folk in helping make the soldiers feel at home. Most of the boys participating were from the East, the Atlantic seaboard being heavily represented.

The day’s festivities started at 9 AM when more than 50 vehicles and one school bus lined up in front of the courthouse to start the trip to the airbase.

The group was delayed for almost an hour at Lockbourne while some of the soldiers who had signed for the outing completed various duties. A few minutes after 11 the cars drove into Circleville with a state highway patrolman leading the procession. Several army cars and two jeeps were in the parade to Gold Cliff.

The soldiers spent most of the time prior to the dinner hour just touring the park. But about 1 PM with tables filled to capacity with fried chicken, salads of all kinds, huge cakes, and just about every kind of food imaginable were uncovered. A dinner call was sounded from an Army Bugler, and the fun began.

The Lockbourne boys came to Circleville to eat, and that they did with a vengeance. Fried chicken was piled so high that even after 170 boys had filled their plates, it was almost impossible to tell where the chicken had been removed.

Time after time the boys renewed their attacks on the fried chicken and all the other food taken to the park prepared by housewives from Circleville, from practically all the county villages, and from the countryside at large.

After the soldiers were given first chance at the food, the hundreds other people filled their plates. All the Pickaway County folks ate their fill, but many got more kick out of watching the Lockbourne boys enjoy their food.

The appeal for homemade cake resulted in at least 100 of the biggest, tastiest, and finest cakes ever placed on one table being assembled. Much of the leftover food, including a score of cakes, were stored in the jeeps and hauled back to the air base.

55 hostesses played important roles in entertaining the guests, dancing, skating, and swimming with the soldiers, and strolling with them through the parks.

The Adelphi Band provided music for the afternoon.

There were 4 contests on the final day of the Pumpkin Show, to include pumpkin pie eater, hog caller, corn husker and flour blower.

NOTE:

I had no idea what “flour blower” was as a contest. One possible answer, or variation of the totally correct answer, I found is that this involves putting an object, like a coin, in a cup or on a plate and covered with flour. The object is to be the first to blow the flour off the object. Naturally, this covers the contestant in flour and would be pretty amusing to watch....from a distance.)

Bainbridge Host to Multitude. 8,000 on hand for Open House celebration.

The 3rd annual Open House of Bainbridge was all over but the shouting. Early in the morning, cars bearing visitors from all over the state filled the highways, and by Noon the main street was lined with hundreds of people.

An estimated 8,000 were on hand for the Open House and the dedication of the 150 mile Paint Valley Sky Line Drive.

Bainbridge put on its best bib and tucker and historical displays decked every store window. Promptly at 1:30 PM the Adelphi Band, which played a pre-parade concert in front of the reviewing stand, heralded the arrival of the first contingent of float and bands.

NOTE:

I had no idea what "bib and tucker" officially meant, so I looked it up.

One web site stated the following:

"One's finest clothes, dressed up, as in the men were told to put on their best bib and tucker for the dinner dance. Although wearing either a bib (frill at front of a man's shirt) or a tucker (ornamental lace covering a woman's neck and shoulders) is obsolete, the phrase survives."

Through the efforts of the Commander of the American Legion Post 291, Kingston, his committee and the Soldiers and Sailors Relief Commission, the graves of every veteran buried in 10 cemeteries will be decorated and permanently recorded at the Legion Post.

For several months, he headed a committee that spotted many poorly marked graves, and placed new flagstaffs and headstones.

The project involved 5 cemeteries in Ross County, and 5 in Pickaway County. As has been the custom for the last 6 years, the Kingston Post will conduct a service in each of these cemeteries.

Hospitality Abounds as Open House Attracts Thousands to Bainbridge

Hospitality at its best, yes even surpassing the widely heard of Southern Hospitality, was felt Sunday by literally thousands, who accepted the “open house” invitations of the citizens of Bainbridge.

“Blossom Time in Paint Valley” the theme of the celebration, was a powerful magnet. Cars crammed all highways leading to Bainbridge. Some arrived early and traveled the 150 miles of the Paint Valley Skyline Drive.

Entertainment included a parade, and included the:

American Legion Drum and Bugle Corps	Dan DeLong on his high wheel bicycle	an amphibious vehicle of the Navy Recruiting office
Bainbridge High School Band	a Scottish Bagpipe player	McClain HS Band
Piketon HS Band	Fairfield HS Band

The spirited Adelphi Band (Ross County's only organized civilian band), was located permanently at the reviewing stand.

Other entertainment included Dan DeLong on his high wheeled bicycle, a Conestoga wagon, and an old hand drawn hose reel.

Mr. Pumpkin Show has his big night. Honored by City, has picture painted, given Navy Tribute.

Bob Colville, “Mr. Pumpkin Show”, was treated to 3 surprises Thursday night during ceremonies honoring his 22 years of service to the Show.

First of all, two 5 ton elephants from the Mills Brothers Circus were in the huge parade that preceded the presentation activities. To everyone's recollection, this was the first elephants had even been in a Pumpkin Show parade.

Secondly, Colville was commissioned as an honorary Navy Recruiter.

Third, Dick Martin, a local painter, painted Colville's portrait. The artwork, done with a standard automobile spray gun, proved to be a splendid likeness and was left on display at Court and Main. After outlining Colville's features with white cloth, Martin proceeded to use the spray gun filling in the sketching. Martin thinks that he is the only person who utilizes this method.

The elephants were a last minute but welcome addition to the parade. Jack Mills, owner of the circus, was passing through and called the Herald to say that he was on his way to Chillicothe. Arrangements to include the animals were quickly made.

Columbus May Jack Sensenbrenner was on hand for the event, and efforts to get him to ride the elephant ended suddenly when someone pointed out that a Democratic Mayor would be riding the symbol of the Republican party.

One elephant is 101 and believed to be the oldest elephant in captivity. The other is 43. Many local people here remember that the Mills Brothers Circus used to have its winter quarters here on the Fairgrounds.

Others will remember the fire there, set by Robert Dale Segree, who later admitted setting the catastrophic circus fire in Hartford, Connecticut. As the barns were burning in the Circleville Fire, the elephants were released in order to prevent a stampede. Several farmers in the area will recall that the animals made a vivid impression while wandering the vicinity.

The Hallsville-Adelphi Community Band is scheduled for concerts on Saturday at 1:00 and 6:00.

NOTE:

Here is a link to a fascinating but tragic story about Robert Dale Segree where he apparently confessed to setting fire to the 1944 Ringling Circus Brothers Circus in Hartford, Connecticut where 168 people died and 142 were injured. That fire happened during a performance where 7,500 to 8,700 people were present. Segree apparently confessed to this fire but later recanted. The article states that Segree was from Circleville.

He also admitted to setting 25-30 other major fires in Maine, New Hampshire, and Ohio.

Rural and city folk alike played hooky from their daily routines to enjoy themselves at Clarksburg's 42nd Annual Field Day. Official estimates are that 4,500 people attended the shady grove grounds.

The food eaten included 800 pounds of fish, 125 pounds of fried chicken, 175 pounds of hamburger, 75 pounds of wienies, 6,504 bottles of soft drinks, and 55 gallons of ice cream.

Mike Ater embarrassed his father by falling off a combine and injuring his arm. He explained that it was standing still and he was used to one in motion.

The women's tractor pulling contest drew the largest crowd. There were 10 contestants, and as you would figure, they did better than the men. That's on the announcer's say so.

Other events included:

Clarksburg Girls Quartet	Vets Male Quartet from Washington CH
An acrobatic dancer who, Saturday, is a finalist in a contest that might qualify her for a Disneyland Trip and a possible movie career
Helen Harris of WBNS-TV	Duncan. The Magician

Some of the farmers, you could tell, felt a little guilty not to be combining on such a balmy day, but when they learn of today's receipts, they will feel better.

Adelphi’s Community Band occupied the bandstand both in the afternoon and evening.

an exhibition of old fashioned steam threshing	a 36-male voice choir	a balloon ascension
96 year old Frank Ebanhack drove his own car to the grounds, and bragged that he still cuts his own firewood

The balloon ascension was made by 28 year old Archie Potter. He went up in a balloon made by his uncle. Archie went up to 2,000 feet and made a parachute jump. He came down in a pasture within a quarter mile of the take off point, and the balloon came down 2-3 miles south of Clarksburg. Archie said that the balloon rises about 800 feet per minute, and that he was a veteran of 1,800 jumps since he was 14 years old.

Capping the day was a special vocal concert by the 36 member chorus of the Buckeye Chapter of the SP&EBSA.

Reason for article:

This article is about the Hallsville Memorial Day Observance

Civil War Post in for Tribute. Memorial Day Service for Buchwalter Post will be held at Hallsville Methodist Church at 10 AM May 30. Special music selections will be given by Carol DeLong, Carolyn Cryder, and Myra Dresbach.

This service was started to commemorate Captain Luther Buchwalter, who formed Co. A 73 O.V. I., known as the Buchwalter Post in 1861. It is considered one of the oldest continuous services in the county.

After the service at the church, the Adelphi Band will lead a procession to the Hallsville Cemetery where the concluding service will be held and the soldier's graves decorated.

Band Name: Adelphi Band

Reason for article:

This article is about Clarksburg Field Day.

Clarksburg's big annual Field Day and Home Coming sponsored by Methodist Church will be held Thursday August 7 in Hurt's Grove, just east of the village.

Plans for a continuous program all afternoon and evening are being contemplated. The customary display of $125,000.00 worth of machinery and commercial displays is anticipated. There will be trap shooting, pony rides, and two concerts by the Adelphi Band.

The entertainment at night will be highlighted by the “Dogpatchers” of Columbus. This widely known group of entertainers consists of 6 members whose comedy and musical numbers meet with high favor everywhere. The group of young men insist that being one of the group is as entertaining as seeing them and hearing them in action. Their pleasure in entertaining is abetted by their marked versatility in vocal and instrumental music, with a variety of professional and home made musical instruments. They are specialists in the unexpected.

The Clarksburg Field Day has been held almost continuously for more than 40 years. It began as a Methodist Church picnic, and gradually expanded to embrace programs by notable entertainers, and events of many kinds. It is attended annually by 3,000 to 4,000 people who look forward to excellent entertainment and a day with friends and old acquaintances.

Clarksburg Fete Thursday.

Clarksburg was primed for its 40th annual Field Day and homecoming celebration Thursday. About 3-4 thousand visitors are expected. Two unusual events are scheduled for Thursday, an old fashioned anvil shoot and a tug of war between two old steam threshing engines.

Also on tap is the Adelphi Band, a demonstration on tractor safety, pony rides, dance, and comedy entertainment. More than one hundred thousand dollars worth of farm machinery will be on display.

Weather, Good and Bad, Slims Field Day Crowd.

They can blame the weather, first fair then threatening foul, for below par attendance at the 45rd annual Field Day here. But it was still a bang up affair, with 4,290 people attending. This was a drop off of 700, and attributed first to sunny skies which were to the liking of the farmers bent on salvaging what has been a pretty seedy wheat crop. There was a patter of rain drops around 6:30 that sent people scurrying to their cars. Apparently they recalled the stuck-in-the-mud experience of 4 years ago.

Despite the crowd, they ate 800 pounds of fish, 120 chickens, 75 pounds of wieners, 175 pounds of hamburger, 2,400 bottle of soft drinks, and 1,596 assorted ice cream items.

The Adelphi Band was also decimated by the wheat harvest as only 9 of the 23 members showed up.

A person from Tampa, Florida came away with honors for traveling the farthest, and the Red Cross Tent had to treat one woman overcome by the heat for walking the 5 miles from Atlanta to take in the affair.

Shrine Horse Show Saturday Features Pony Naming Event.

The Pickaway Shrine Club was looking for a pony that had been trained to love children to be given as a First Prize at a “Name the Pony” event at the Shriner’s Charity Western Show. They found a family who had such a horse, but had to put it up for auction. The Show, to be staged Saturday at the Pickaway County Fairgrounds, will feature clowns, and the Adelphi Community Band.

In the special “Name the Pony” event, any boy or girl 15 years or younger is eligible to enter a name for the pony. The youth entering the best name will win the pony.

7-31-1962, Chillicothe Gazette:

Band Name: Adelphi Band, also Bowsher's Bunch, also Adelphi-Hallsville Band

Reason for article:

This entire article is about the Adelphi Band, and has a picture of the band in uniform, with the picture taken at a band practice just for this article. The photo is extremely dark, but you can make out some faces and some parts of the uniform style. The name on the drum is “Adelphi, Ohio Band”

The caption under the picture states:

” Adelphi Band members donned their uniforms Monday evening during a practice session to pose for this photo. The more than 75 year old band has made public appearances at most important events over the years. The present Director is Roderick Shaw, a music teacher in the Pickaway County Schools.”

Adelphi Band, Second Oldest in the State.

Adelphi lays claim to having the second oldest band in the state. Only one other, Johnstown, has existed longer.

According to Arthur Hinton, Superintendent of the Centralia Schools, the Adelphi Band was organized more than 75 years ago, by the Bowsheer Brothers. It was then known as Bowsheer's Bunch.

Later, it became the Adelphi Band, then the Adelphi-Hallsville Band, but reverted to the Adelphi Band name which it has today.

Love of band music has kept the band active over the years, Mr. Hinton said, and the band membership has varied from a small number in the beginning to a high of 40. Personnel now number 25. With a small community, recruitment has been a problem, as the younger people have diversified interests.

Practices in the early days were held in the Red Man's Hall, and the Knights of Pythias Hall in Adelphi, while a Hallsville store was the gathering place for musicians at other times. Now the practices are at Adelphi School from March to its customary last appearance of the band at Halloween.

Mr. Hinton recalled that Frank Hickman of Lancaster was a former Director of the band and he was followed by Charlie Proxmire. The present Director is Roderick Shaw, once a member of the University of Michigan's Marching Band and now a music teacher in Pickaway schools.

The band has made frequent appearances at most civic events over the years. An old photograph shows the band ready to leave for Chillicothe to help celebrate the visit of Governor Campbell in 1890. The band will make its appearance at Clarksburg Field Day on Thursday.

Member of the band attending Monday’s practice were:

Crowd at Field Day estimated at 4,500.

Clarksburg’s 47th annual Field Day Thursday reportedly made both the 1962 Pickaway County Fair and the Fayette County Fair look like Sunday school picnics with its one day turn out in beautiful Hurst Grove.

Virtually all the food sold out, to include 600 pounds of fish, 175 pounds of chicken, 190 pounds of hamburger, and 50 pounds of hot dogs.

For ice cream, the crowd consumed 2 gallons of vanilla slices, 60 dozen brown giant bars, 36 dozen fudgesicles, and 30 dozen drumstick cones.

Entertainment included trap shooting, horseshoe pitching, a 40 boy tug of war, the 75 year old Adelphi Community Band, artist Jake Noble, and Lucky Carson the singing Ranger and his trained horse Chief.

There was also a Civil War sham battle, and a 12,500 foot parachute jump.

In the afternoon, the Adelphi Band made a reappearance.

Loyalty Paraders to Step to Music by Adelphi Band

Chillicothe Jaycees have finally succeeded in lining up a band for Saturday’s Loyalty Parade. The Adelphi Community Band, consisting of about 25 members and directed by Rod Shaw of Lancaster, will be the lone band among 19 units marching through downtown Chillicothe.

The parade is schedule for 3:30 PM and the units will meet in Yoctangee Park to get into formation. Immediately following the parade will be ceremonies in front of the Courthouse. Speakers will include people from the Jaycees, the VFW and American Legion, County Commissioners, and a representative from the Philadelphia Phillies baseball team.

NOTE:

I had to admit that I had to look up “Loyalty Day”.

I found a “National Loyalty Day”. Which may not fit the details here.

“To celebrate our shared American spirit and the sacrifices so many of our fellow citizens have made, the Congress, by Public Law 85-529, as amended, has designated the first day of May each year as Loyalty Day. “

“President Dwight D. Eisenhower proclaimed May 1, 1959, the first official observance of Loyalty Day. Each year since its inception as a legal holiday in 1958, every President has recognized the day with an official proclamation.”

“Loyalty Day is celebrated with parades and ceremonies in some states, but even today many people remain unaware of this event. The nation's founders are remembered on Loyalty Day, which is a day when people celebrate their freedom while remembering their responsibilities to continue the legacy of liberty. “

Reason for article:

This article is about the construction of a mall in downtown Chillicothe. In this case, the “mall” is creating a pedestrian only, decorated, space on Paint Street between Main and Second Street.

Mall Almost Finished, Dedication to be Thursday. More than 100 volunteers worked over the week end to transform a block long section of Paint Street between Main and Paint, into a garden like mall, including a fountain, and playground equipment.

It was estimated that it took between 900 to 1,000 man hours for the construction, which included 2,020 plants and trees, 10 large trees, 50 small trees, 1,550 chrysanthemum, and a variety of plant and shrubs.

The dedication program will include a western square dance demonstration, a sidewalk art show, and organ, choir, and band concerts.

The Adelphi Band is scheduled to start a concert in the center of the mall at about 8:30 PM for the dedication of the mall.

Adelphi Community Band.

Since 1920, a group of musicians have been performing as the Adelphi Community Band. The only community band in this part of Ohio, the 33 member Adelphi Band plays at fairs, outings, and in parades throughout the area.

The members range in age from 12 to 75. They practice each Monday from May to October at the Masonic Temple in Adelphi.

They march in the Chillicothe Halloween parade, Circleville Pumpkin Show Parades, and in the Kingston Festival Parade as well as in the Veterans Day Parade and others.

A usual attraction at the Ross County Fair, the band also plays for the Fairfield County Fair in Lancaster and has recently begun playing at the Hocking County Fair.

R.R. Shaw is Director of the Band. His assistant is Raymond Connett.
